AWARD

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Central Act 14 of 1947) the Government of Goa by order dated 10-8-94 bearing No. 28/25/94-LAB referred the following dispute for adjudication by this Tribunal.

"Whether the demand of the workmen employed in M/s Cidade de Goa, Vainguinim Beach, Dona Paula, Goa, for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1992-93 is legal and justified ?

If not, to what relief the workmen are entitled ?"

2. On receipt of the reference a case was registered under No. IT/91/94 and registered A/D notice was issued to the parties. In pursuance to the said notice the parties put in their appearance. The workman-Party I (for short, "Union") filed its statement of claim at Exb.3. The facts of the case in brief as pleaded by the union are that it is the sole representative union of the workmen of the Employer-Party II (for short, "employer") and its registration is No. 211/84. That the employer paid 8.33% bonus to the confirmed workmen under the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 for the accounting year 1991-92 as demanded by the union vide its letter of demand dated 27th July, 1992. That thus the employer refused to pay the balance 11.67% + 10% ex-gratia payment to the workmen though the employer had successful and encouraging financial results and gross profits for the accounting year 1991-92. That the union raised an industrial dispute before the Labour Commissioner vide letter dated 12-12-92 demanding 20% max. annual bonus for the accounting year 1991-92 as well as 10% ex-gratia payment. That the 8.33% minimum bonus which the employer paid to the workmen sometime in the 3rd week of November 1992 was accepted by the workmen under protest. That in order to deprive the workmen of the said bonus and ex-gratia payment the employer showed in the balance sheet fictitious losses and expenditures. The union relied upon the balance sheet and profit and loss account for the year 1991-92 of the employer as well as the balance sheet and profit and loss accounts for the accounting year 88-89, 89-90 and 90-91. The union claimed that the employer should be directed to pay to the workmen the bonus @ 20% and ex-gratia payment @ 10% for the accounting year 91-92.

3. The employer filed written statement at Exb. 5. By way of preliminary objection the employer contended that the dispute does not survive because the workmen have accepted bonus of 8.33% for the accounting year 91-92. The employer also contended that the payment for bonus is not espoused by the substantial number of workmen and therefore there being no industrial dispute the reference is liable to be rejected. The employer stated that the union has no right to raise the dispute as it does not represent majority of the workmen nor a substantial section. The employer denied that the union is the sole representative union of all the workmen employed with the employer. The employer stated that all the workmen who were entitled to bonus under the Payment of Bonus Act, 1965 were paid bonus @ 8.33% which was due and payable under the Act for the accounting year 91-92 and the workmen accepted the payment without any reservation whatsoever and in full and final settlement of their claim for bonus for the accounting year ending 91-92 and thus they have no dispute whatsoever. The employer stated that the demand of the union for 20% bonus does not have any support from the workmen of the employer. The employer denied that they had highly successful and encouraging financial season and gross profit for the accounting year 91-92. The employer stated that they made a loss of 7.8 lakhs as shown in the profit and loss account. The employer denied any knowledge that by letter dated 12-12-92 the union raised an industrial dispute before the Labour Commissioner or that the said letter dated 12-12-92 was sent to the conciliation officer. The employer denied that the employer has shown in the balance sheet fictitious losses and expenditure as contended by the union. The employer denied that false, non existent and unreasonable expenditures have been deducted from the gross profit as contended by the union. The employer stated that the expenditure is justified, fair and proper. The employer stated that they have strictly complied with the methodology of calculation under the Act and there being no allocable surplus whatsoever the employer has rightly paid the statutory bonus of 8.33%. The employer stated that in view of the proper and legitimate calculations no bonus whatsoever is due and payable over and above what has been statutorily paid in the accounting year 91-92 and therefore the reference deserves to be rejected. The Union thereafter filed rejoinder at Exb. 6.

4. On the pleadings of the parties, following issues were framed at Exb.7.

1. Whether the Party I proves that it is the sole representative union of the workmen employed by Party II and hence it is authorised to raise the Industrial Dispute ?

2. Whether the Party I proves that the demand for 20% bonus is espoused by substantial number of workmen and hence the reference is maintainable ?

3. Whether the Party I proves that its demand for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1992-93 is legal and justified ?

4. Whether the Party II proves that the dispute does not survive because of the acceptance of 8.33% bonus by the workmen of the Party II for the accounting year 1991-92 ?

5. Whether the Party I is entitled to any relief ?

6. What Award or order ?

5. My findings on the issues are as follows:

Issue No. 1 In the negative.

Issue No. 2 In the negative.

Issue No. 3 In the negative.

Issue No. 4 Does not arise.

Issue No. 5 Workmen are not entitled to any relief.

Issue No. 6 As per order below.

REASONS

6. Issue Nos. 1 and 2: Both these issues are taken up together as they are interrelated since the union had contended that it is the sole representative of the workmen employed with the employer and therefore it is authorised to raise the industrial dispute and since this contention of the union was denied by the employer, the burden was on the union to prove its sole representing character. It was also the contention of the union that the demand for 20% bonus is espoused by substantial number of workmen and therefore the reference is maintainable which contention was denied by the employer and therefore the burden was on the union to prove this contention also. The union has examined its Gen. Secretary Shri John Rego and its President Shri Joaquim Gomes and their deposition is on record. Except for making a bare statement that about 240 employees are presently the members of the union and at the time when the dispute was raised about 180 employees of the employer were the members of the union, no documentary evidence in support of its contention has been produced by the union. In the cross examination of Shri John Rego the employer had denied the contention of the said witness that the employees of the employer are the members of the said union. In the cross examination of the witness Shri Joaquim Gomes also the employer had denied that at the time when the demand was made 180 employees were the members of the said union. In view of the stand taken by the employer as regards the membership of the union it was incumbent on the union to produce some documentary evidence to prove that at the time when the demand was made 180 employees were the members of the said union or that atleast a substantial number of the employees of the employer were its members. The union also has not produced any documentary evidence to show that an extraordinary General Body Meeting was held on 7-11-92 for demanding 20% bonus and ex-gratia payment. In the absence of any evidence on the part of the union the issue nos. 1 and 2 cannot be answered in favour of the union. I, therefore hold that the union has failed to prove that it is the sole representative union of the workmen employed by the employer or that the demand for 20% bonus was espoused by a substantial number of workmen. I, therefore answer the issue nos. 1 and 2 in the negative.

7. Issue No. 3: On this issue the union has examined its President Shri J. Gomes and its General Secretary Shri John Rego. It is the contention of the union that the workers of the employer are entitled to 20% bonus. As per the order of reference dated 10-8-84 the dispute which has been referred is as regards the demand of the workmen for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1992-93 and whether the said demand is legal and justified. In the statement of claim filed by the union, the union has made the pleadings on the legality and justifiability of the demand for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1991-92 and not for the accounting year 1992-93. The witnesses examined by the union also have deposed as regards their demand for 20% bonus for the accounting year 91-92 and not for the accounting year 92-93. Therefore the pleadings made by the union as well as the evidence which has been led by the union are besides the order of reference i.e. to say that the dispute referred by the Government is on one issue whereas the pleadings and the evidence which has been led by the union are on a different issue. Even otherwise no evidence has been led by the union in support of its claim for 20% bonus. In the light of what is discussed above, I hold that the union has failed to prove that its demand for 20% bonus for the accounting year 92-93 is legal and justified. I, therefore, answer the issue no. 3 in the negative.

8. Issue No.4: The employer had contended that the dispute does not survive in view of the acceptance of 8.33% bonus by the workmen of the employer for the accounting year 1991-92. I have already mentioned earlier that the employer has not led any evidence in the matter. Even otherwise, in my view giving the finding on this issue does not arise because the dispute as regards payment of bonus pertains to the accounting year 1992-93 whereas the employer has referred to the payment of bonus of 8.33% for year 1991-92. Giving the finding on this issue will amount to travelling beyond the scope of reference which is not permissible under the law. I, therefore hold that giving finding whether the dispute does not survive because of the acceptance of 8.33% bonus by the workmen of the employer for the accounting year 91-92 does not arise. Hence, I answer the issue no.4 accordingly.

9. Issue No. 5: Since it has been held by me that the union has failed to prove that its demand for 20% bonus for the accounting year 92-93 is legal and justified the question of granting any relief to the workmen does not arise. I, therefore hold that the workmen are not entitled to any relief.

In the circumstances I pass the following order.

ORDER

It is hereby held that the demand of the workmen employed in M/s Cidade de Goa, Vainguinim Beach, Dona Paula, Goa for 20% bonus for the accounting year 1992-93 is not legal and justified. It is hereby further held that the workmen are not entitled to any relief.

No order as to costs. Inform the Government accordingly.
